A Stock of Goods
Only
Four Months Old.

SNOOK & CO.'S

Gigantic Sale of the Sample-Lingaman Co.'s

NOTHING
Over
Four Months Old.

Stock of Dry Goods, Ready-Made Goods, Fancy Goods, Millinery, etc., begins Monday, August 21st, at 8 a. m., and continues from day to day until disposed of. Last week we purchased the entire stock of goods of the late firm of the Sample-Lingaman Co., who embarked in business during April of this year. Mention this to direct attention to the fact that the stock, with trifling exceptions, consists of NEW, FRESH, SALEABLE MERCHANDISE, not over FOUR MONTHS OLD, a fact which at once demonstrates its desirability. Our invoice shows that we bought this stock at CLOSE TO HALF the price paid by the S.-L. Co. This means that we can afford to sell you

Each Dollar's Worth For Fifty Cents--1-2 Price!

On much of the stock, particularly Ready-Made Goods, Millinery, Fancy Neckwear, etc., we only ask you to pay us TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR EACH DOLLAR'S WORTH—1/4 PRICE! Of course, in a stock of goods of such diversity as the S.-L. Co. stock it will be impossible to quote more than a limited number of items, which here speak for themselves.

Come, everybody, for miles around to this, Wheeling's Greatest Sale in years. Plenty of extra salespeople to wait on you.

OVER IN BELMONT

Matters Political are Rather Quiet These Days.

THE RESULT IN JEFFERSON

In the Contest Between Gill, Mansfield and Erskine Being Awaited With Interest—Judge Mansfield's Friends Say Gill Will Have not More Than 25 of the County's 45 Votes in the Congressional Convention.

Political matters in Belmont county are very quiet, owing, no doubt, to the fact that Belmont has but one congressional candidate, Hon. C. L. Weems, who will have the entire delegation of his county. In Jefferson county it is quite different. Hon. J. J. Gill's friends in Steubenville claim that he will have the entire delegation of his county, and are working hard to hold their claim good, but on the other hand, Judges Mansfield's ardent friends say that Gill will not have more than twenty-five out of the forty-five delegates from that county. Judge Erskine is also at work in that county, and may secure some of the delegates. It appears to be conceded that General Hollingsworth will have the support of Harrison. Monroe county will not have a candidate of its own, and Carroll county, which is at the other extreme end of the district, will probably stand by its candidate, Mr. Fimple, a good and able man, but who has not the personal acquaintance by contact with the people that would give him strength on second choice. Belmont and Harrison counties can nominate, as can Belmont and the Gill followers in Jefferson county, should they come together as a unit.

OPERA HOUSE SEASON

Opens This Evening With West's Minstrels the Attraction. The Opera House season, under the management of Mr. Charles A. Feinler, opens this evening with West's minstrels the excellent attraction. There has been a heavy advance sale.

Mr. West has always been in the first rank of those who stood for a more advanced and progressive form of minstrelsy. The development and carrying out of his revolutionary but thoroughly artistic and up-to-date ideas has always been more or less hampered by his associates. Being now in sole control of an organization of his own creation, he is in a position to give the public a performance modeled on his own ambitious plans, to attain the most colossal capital results in minstrelsy that novel ideas and energy, backed by abundant capital will permit. He is an indefatigable worker. He has been the real backbone of all the organizations that have led up to this consummation of his dreams as to perfection in minstrelsy.
